

Postgraduate Certificate in Healthcare Practice

NHS England, WT&E Directorate are offering a limited number of places across London on a Postgraduate Certificate in Healthcare Practice, to experienced General Practice Nurses (GPNs).

Course Overview

This course helps develop systems leadership and workforce transformation skills through delivery of quality improvement projects. The course consists of 3 modules (60 credits), delivered over 12-months. Learners must be able to commit 1 day per week on Tuesdays' to face-to-face taught sessions, masterclasses and study days.

“During my PGCert I had the opportunity to learn about leadership in healthcare, my leadership style, and emotional intelligence. In my nursing career I had not previously had the chance to learn how to lead, but now I can say that I am more confident and more effective in my clinical and non-clinical leadership roles.”

Support funding and spaces available

- Places fully funded by NHSE (incl. bursary of £11,000 per nurse)
- 5 spaces across London - 1 place per London ICB area

Eligibility criteria

- Working at an appropriate leadership /advanced level
- Be an independent prescriber
- Has seen all undifferentiated illness in primary care
- Has significant primary care / general practice experience
- No minimum timeframe from qualification

Interested?

To find out more or to express your interest, contact your local GPN Programme Director by COP Monday 12 August:

- North London: Charlotte Cooley (charlottecooley@nhs.net)
- South East London: Debbie Brown (debbiebrown@nhs.net)
- South West London: Dawn Hunt (dawn.hunt4@nhs.net)